How did you hear about Inspire Preschool? _____

Has your child been enrolled and/or is your child currently enrolled in any other preschool/day care?

To what other preschool programs are you applying?

Please list any additional information relating to your child that would be helpful for us to know (allergies, special needs, etc)?

The application process starts when an application and application fee are submitted.
Admissions are based on providing the optimal balance of students based on age, sex, and overall classroom composition including parent availability for community events planned throughout the school year. Special needs must be fully disclosed at the time of application so that we can plan and provide any needed support for your child. Failure to disclose a special need may result in reconsideration of enrollment.
